All Watched Over by Machines of Loving Grace

I like to think (and the sooner the better!)
of a cybernetic meadow where mammals and computers live together in mutually programming harmony
like pure water
touching clear sky.

I like to think
(right now, please!)
of a cybernetic forest filled with pines and electronics where deer stroll peacefully past computers
as if they were flowers with spinning blossoms.

I like to think
(it has to be!)
of a cybernetic ecology where we are free of our labors and joined back to nature, returned to our mammal
brothers and sisters, and all watched over by machines of loving grace.
